

Press release: August 30th 2007

BMG introduces professional liability for International Coach Federation.

London and Dallas based broker BMG Insurance Brokers Limited (BMG) in conjunction with Westminster Indemnity Limited has arranged professional liability coverage for the International Coach Federation (ICF), the official organization that represents the interests of 12,000 personal and business coaches across 80 different countries.

ICF frames the ethical guidelines and acts as the official voice of this rapidly expanding community of professionals worldwide. Encouraging members to take professional liability cover has become an important initiative, with members able to subscribe through the ICF approved scheme.

Cover is available in the UK, Eire and all USA states with the exception of Florida, Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Utah and Washington due to regulatory reasons. These states are currently being worked upon, along with Australia and Canada.

Coverage is available “on-line” through the user friendly site: <http://insurance-coachfederation.com>

- Professional liability – this covers professional mistakes, errors and omissions arising from your business activities
- Limits of either $1,000,000 or $2,000,000 any one claim made and in the annual aggregate per member
- Defense costs included
- Facility available to have others noted as named parties on the policy
- Zero deductible
- On-line premium payment
- Automatic and immediate issuance of the certificate of insurance and policy form
- World class insurer
- Automatically available for members with annual business income up to $250,000
- Time saving and convenient
- Internet based – available 24/7
- Policy form available before you buy

For further information please contact Neal James-Crook at BMG Insurance Brokers Limited

Email: neal@bmginsurancebrokers.com

Direct Line: +44 (0)207 090 1402